

How We Show Up For Each Other

Different Ways to Be Part of Wild Grace

There are many ways to be part of Wild Grace, and all of them are valued. Some practitioners build an ongoing presence through regular classes and offerings. Others host occasional gatherings or workshops. Some simply rent the space when it supports their work. However you show up here, we hope Wild Grace feels supportive, collaborative, and aligned for both your practice and the community we're building together.

	Rooted Facilitators A steady, ongoing presence and co-creator within the Wild Grace community.	Community Facilitators Regular gatherings and offerings that contribute to the rhythm of Wild Grace. Wild Grace was created to be a home for healing, connection, and community.

Every practitioner, facilitator, and guest who walks through our doors helps shape what this space becomes.

However you choose to partner with Wild Grace, we're grateful to be part of supporting your work in the world.
